The extension of stay as well as the change of certain types of visas are solely at the discretion of the Immigration officer.

Please note:

1. The Embassy will not process the visa application if the documents submitted are not complete.
2. Each applicant must submit his/her own set of required documents. This also applies to the applicants, including children with their parents, who are travelling in a group with all names in one ticket.
3. Consular officers reserve the rights to request additional documents as deemed necessary and to reject any application without having to provide reason.
4. The Embassy does not provide photocopying, printing, fax or e-mail services. Please always bring your own copies of required documents. The Embassy reserves the right to keep all your documents as reference after processing your visa application and will not return the documents.
5. Visa information and requirements for visa application can be changed without prior notice.
6. After collecting your passport with issued visa, the applicant MUST check the type of visa carefully and make sure it accords with your purpose and period of stay in Thailand.
7. The applicant is fully responsible for choosing and submitting the correct type of visa according to his/her purpose of travelling and the period of stay in Thailand. If there is any doubt, you MUST raise it immediately with the staff. Otherwise the applicant will take all the consequences himself/herself.
