

Mr. Anutin Charnvirakul, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Public Health of the Thailand, together with Mr. Niphon Bunyamane, Deputy Minister of Interior, and Mr. Atirat Ratanasate, Deputy Minister of Transport, had led a group of Thai delegations composed of delegation from Ministry of Public Health, Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Transport, Royal Thai Police, academics and experts to attend the 3rd Global Ministerial Conference on Road Safety in Stockholm, between 19-20 February 2020.

The above-mentioned conference was organized with the aim to help achieving UN's Sustainable Development Goals 2030. Participated by delegations from more than 80 countries, including governmental agencies, private companies, academics, international institutions and organizations, the conference provided opportunities for representatives to share successes and lessons from implementation of the Global Plan for the Decade of Action for Road Safety 2011–2020, to chart future strategic directions for global road safety up to 2030 and beyond, as well as to define ways to accelerate action on proven strategies to save lives.

During the 3rd Global Ministerial Conference on Road Safety, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Public Health of the Thailand had participated in the High-Level Panel discussion under the theme “Harnessing the successes of the decade of action for Road Safety 2011-2020”.

