Venerable Ajahn Jayasaro was born in England. In 1978, he became a disciple of Ajahn Chah, one of Thailand's most renowned Buddhist monks and meditation masters, at Wat Pah Pong forest monastery in Northeast Thailand. He took full ordination, with Ajahn Chah as his preceptor in 1980. Those in Sweden may know Venerable Ajahn Jayasaro from Björn Natthiko Lindeblad's book "Jag kan ha fel" as he was one of Natttikho's teachers while he was a Buddhist monk in Thailand.
